

ISRAEL INSTITUTE

Honors Symposium

The Israel Institute's Honors Symposium provides top undergraduate students access to cutting-edge scholarship in the field of Israel Studies, an insiders' understanding of graduate work, and strategic advice on pursuing an academic career.

Selective three-day program for undergraduate students

This prestigious three-day program includes an opportunity to meet leading researchers in small group settings, attend stimulating lectures and seminars, and learn about how to find and apply to leading graduate programs all while networking with other outstanding students. The next Honors Symposium will take place between January 9-11, 2019, near New York City.

REQUIREMENTS

This program is open to university sophomores, juniors, and seniors in the United States who are considering graduate work related to the modern state of Israel.

NEXT STEPS

Application: This program has a multi-part application process. To learn more and apply, please visit: israelinstitute.org/programs/academic.

Deadline: October 30, 2018

CONTACT

For more information, please contact Dr. Ilai Saltzman, Associate Director for Academic Programs, at isaltzman@israelinstitute.org.

The Israel Institute is an independent, nonpartisan and non-advocacy 501(c)(3) organization that advances rigorous teaching, research, and discourse about modern Israel in partnership with leading academic, research, and cultural institutions.