Statler Dining

Statler Hotel

Taverna Banfi (Breakfast, 7:00am-10:00am, Brunch, 10:00am-2:00pm, Dinner, 5:30pm-9:00pm)

Taverna Banfi is proud to be the region's premiere Tuscan-inspired restaurant, featuring local ingredients and an award-winning wine list. The restaurant is open daily for breakfast, lunch, and dinner—as well as Sunday brunch. Reservations are recommended and can be made by dialing 2565.

Arts and Exhibits

Johnson Museum of Art (10:00am-5:00pm)

An Eye for Detail: Dutch Painting from the Leiden Collection

This exhibition of twelve seventeenth-century Dutch paintings from the New York-based Leiden Collection focuses on works by the Leiden fijnschilders, or fine-manner painters. The paintings present a wide variation of subject matter, including portraiture, landscape, peasant scenes, and historical scenes.

The Big Draw: It's Our World (2:00pm)

This special event, held in celebration of The Big Draw, an international drawing festival, will feature illustrators, comic book artists, drawing demonstrations, hands-on activities and a magic show. Free.

Department of Music

Cello Recital (3:00pm, Barnes Hall)

Cellist John Haines-Eitzen, with guest pianist Matthew Bengston, will present a program of works by J.S. Bach, Robert Schumann and Roberto Sierra. Free.

Science and Nature

Laboratory of Ornithology (11:00am-4:00pm)

Guided Bird Walk (9:00am)

This guided walk through the Sapsucker Woods Sanctuary, led by members of the Cayuga Bird Club, is primarily intended for beginning birdwatchers. Appropriate outdoor gear, binoculars and a field guide to birds are recommended. The tour will commence from the front of the Visitors' Center.

Campus Events

Cornell United Religious Work

Catholic Mass (10:30am, Sage Chapel)

This worship service is free and open to the public.

Cornell Cinema Presents

Othello (4:30pm)

This 1952 production of the Shakespeare play about a general betrayed by his self-serving lieutenant stars the legendary Orson Welles. A recent restoration of this film allows it to be appreciated for the first time in its original glory.

Apocalypse Now Redux (7:00pm)

An adaptation of Joseph Conrad's Heart of Darkness, the film tells the story of an army captain in Vietnam who travels deep into the jungle to "terminate with extreme prejudice" the renegade Colonel Kurtz. This Redux version contains 49 minutes of additional footage.

Films are shown in Willard Straight Theater

General admission: $8.50

WVBR

Bound for Glory

(8:00pm-11:00pm, Anabel Taylor Hall, Cul de Snack Café)

This weekly production by radio station WVBR presents live folk music. The featured artist will be Mark Rust.

Cornell Sustainability Facts

Did you know?

"Think Big, Live Green," a major energy and waste reduction campaign was launched in September 2013 by the College of Engineering and the Energy and Sustainability department in Cornell's Facilities Services to implement a "Think Big, Live Green" campaign in each of Cornell's seven colleges!
