

Nepotism

In order to reduce potential conflict of interest, applicants will not be considered for employment in a position in which they would be subject to supervision by a relative.