

Ombudsman

The Office of the University Ombudsman offers a safe place where Cornell faculty, students, and staff can speak off the record, and without fear of reprisal, about university-related issues or conflicts and obtain guidance. The office adheres to the tenets of: independence, neutrality and impartiality, confidentiality, and informality. The Ombudsman holds the identity and all communications with those seeking assistance in strict confidence and does not disclose confidential communications unless given permission to do so, except as required by law, or where, in the judgment of the Ombudsman, there appears to be imminent risk of serious harm.

For more information about the services offered, please see their website: <http://ombudsman.cornell.edu/>.