

Working Group
Admissions and Financial Aid

Charge: The Admissions and Financial Aid Working Group will monitor undergraduate admissions, enrollment, and financial aid activity and make recommendations to the Provost to align activity and policies with Cornell's mission, including open access and diversity, in the context of available resources. Related to admissions and enrollment, the Working Group will consider inflow, outflow, and between-unit movement data for undergraduate colleges/schools and develop recommendations to the Provost for overall university undergraduate enrollment goals and goals for each college and school. Related to financial aid, the Working Group will consider financial aid programs and policies in relation to indicators such as admissions yield and net cost of attendance related to various socioeconomic and other student characteristics, considering college/school data, aggregate Cornell data, and peer university policies and trends, and will make recommendations to the Provost regarding changes to financial aid programs and policies.
