

DRAFT 10/12/15
Provost's Working Group on
Public and Global Activities

Charge:

The Provost's Public and Global Activities Committee will foster the interests of the University by developing university level strategic goals that integrate public and global activities within our educational, research, and outreach missions, and by implementing strategies to achieve those goals.

The Committee's scope will include community engagement programs, international collaborations involving student learning, and learning and engagement programs in New York City.

The committee will work to facilitate public and global activities by exploring and recommending improvements to academic and business practices and policies.

Membership:

To be finalized but expected to include nine or ten faculty, two vice provosts, three or four deans, and one or two staff with subject area expertise.
