Head, URRC

The URRC provides University oversight for the hiring of active military personal that will serve as military instructors in the Cornell ROTC programs. The committee is composed of tenured Cornell faculty members spread across multiple colleges and the heads (and/or executive officers) of each of the service branches.

As a committee we interview potential candidates (typically via videoconference) for open positions within the ROTC programs. We discuss each candidate as a committee, and vote to approve or disapprove of the appointment. Candidates are extensively vetted by the service branches before being interview by the URRC.

The committee met three times and conducted four interviews during AY 2016-17. One additional interview was scheduled for March 17, 2017 but was cancelled by the Army (candidate was assigned to alternative duties).
