Small Farm Quarterly

The Small Farms Quarterly magazine is published seasonally and reaches 32,000 readers across the Northeast. It is compiled by the Small Farms Program and published by Countryfolks. Read online or subscribe at: www.smallfarms.cornell.edu/quarterly
Major Projects

‘Plan Your Farm’ Hub
The ‘Hub’ provides online courses in farm planning & production, self-guided lessons on the farm start-up process, ‘Voices of Experience’ mentoring videos.

The Labor Ready Farmer
This project offers a team-based approach to building skills of new farmers and Latino agricultural employees wanting to climb the ladder from labor to management.

Reduced Tillage in Vegetables
Reduced tillage practices are important for building soil health. This project works to help growers at diverse scales reduce tillage while managing vegetable systems that build better soils.

Mushrooms & More...
Looking to integrate fruits, nuts, mushrooms, medicinals, animals, and more into your forest systems? Check out our new agroforestry resource library and sign up for a workshop near you!

‘Farm Ops’ for Veterans in Ag
This project offers resources and training events for military veterans in New York State who are pursuing careers in agriculture.

Wholesale Market Trainings
The ‘Baskets to Pallets’ project helps to prepare small and mid-size farmers to enter new scale-appropriate markets such as food hubs, grocery stores, cooperatives and restaurants.
