Troopers investigate Sodus double homicide

New York State Police were investigating the scene of what they are calling a double homicide at a home on the corner of Champion Road and Route 24 in the town of Sodus Sunday.

Mother, daughter found in home

By MIKE HIBBARD

SIONUS — As of this morning, investigators had not revealed the identity of two women found dead Sunday afternoon in the town, apparently the victims of a homicide.

Troopers and investigators went to a single-family home on the corner of Champion Road and Route 24 about 4 p.m. and found the bodies of two adult females, a mother and her daughter, inside. At about the same time, investigators are calling the deaths suspicious.

YANCEY — An Ohio woman participating in Sunday’s Masnouaun Half- Marathon was serious about this, as she had her arm out the car window when she fell off her bike.

State police and Lan Lou Zhang, 31, of Columbus, were in Strong Memorial Hospital in Rochester in critical condition. The hospital said it had no information on her this morning.

Zhang’s accident followed the death Saturday of Michael Clyde, 38, of Rochester. Clyde was con-ting in the mini-Musselman Half-Iron. The hospital said he was taken to Strong Mercy Flight took her to the Rochester hospital, state police said.
