Your gift to the Community Care Fund is an investment in your family, friends, co-workers, neighbors and community members when they are facing a moment of critical need in their lives.

Through 50+ mission-driven organizations and programs operating in EVERY corner of Tompkins County, the Community Care Fund invests financial resources to address identified needs in our community including:

- Addressing Hunger & Food Insecurity
- Access to quality childcare and after school programs
- Safe and affordable living conditions
- Access to physical and mental healthcare
- Treatment for substance abuse and addiction
- Support for victims of physical/mental/emotional abuse
- Opportunities to build skills and knowledge to secure employment

These resources strengthen lives, increase self-sufficiency, and build community.
An undesignated gift to UWTC invests in all the areas below.
A gift to the Community Care Fund invests in all but the TMS Emergency Needs Fund.
