3. 4-H Member Master Entry List

You will find this form on the Altamont Fair website. Additional forms may be copied by the exhibitor or are available from the 4-H office. List ALL exhibits that you are making in the Altamont Fair – except animals, video, and horticulture experiments and methods. Be sure to include events such as public presentations, action booths and teen leaders. The Master Entry List must be signed by your 4-H leader. Fill out and bring to the fair the first day you enter exhibits. On the line labeled county, please list the county in which you are a 4-H member.

IMPORTANT – Each member or person bringing a member’s exhibits to the fair will be asked to take their master entry list to each judge as projects are evaluated. After each exhibit is evaluated, the judge will mark the award on the master list. The completed master list will then be handed in at the entry table before the exhibitor or a representative leaves the fair grounds.

To reserve space, clubs desiring to exhibit in this section should send the Pre-entry forms to Eileen DePaula, Cornell Cooperative Extension Albany County, 24 Martin Rd., Voorheesville, NY 12186, by July 15. Please put both the club name and name of the person the premium check should be written to on the top of the pre-entry form (Space for late entries cannot be guaranteed). A double entry card must be filled out for each club exhibit.

All club exhibits must also have a 3x5 card listing names and ages of members involved in planning and constructing the exhibit. Staple both cards flat in the front right corner of the exhibit booth. Convincing Ability (30 points) - Have the subject matter so limited and orderly arranged that the observer could not fail to be convinced. Should clearly show how to do or accomplish the main idea, which should be useful and practical. The use of scientific information, as related to the exhibit may be emphasized.

Attractiveness (30 points) - Should have pleasing or effective color combinations, neat lettering of correct size, materials used suitable to the idea of the exhibit. Quality of workmanship, produce or other articles will be considered.

Club exhibits are to encourage action and participation as a club group. 4-H club members are expected to be actively involved in designing, producing and setting up their club exhibit. Leaders, parents, agents or other adults may supervise only. Clubs are responsible for bringing their own paper to cover the exhibit.

NOTICE: Food should not be used as part of any exhibit or it will be disqualified. Judging will be completed by Tuesday noon.

Individual or group entries are encouraged. Following are some examples of types of projects you may conduct. Any type or combination of the types of science projects described along with creativity is Experiments: Describe your hypothesis (what you think will happen); describe the procedures you performed; describe the observations you made and what conclusions you drew from your experiment; include photos or drawings and samples (if possible) from your experiment. If it is difficult to recreate the study for the exhibit, drawings or photographs are acceptable. Use heavy poster paper (14” x 22” minimum) as a background. 2014 FAIR SEASON ANIMAL HEALTH REQUIREMENTS

Fair Inspection Procedures

All cattle exhibited at Altamont Fair must test negative to an approved test for Bovine Viral Diarrhea persistent infection (BVD-PI). This means that all beef and dairy cows will have to be tested for BVD-PI before the show season begins by an approved method, and your veterinarian has to record this information on the certificate of veterinary inspection. The vet is also responsible for verifying the validity of the test, the identification of the animal, and recording the test date on the certificate. Animals will only have to be tested once during their lifetime.

Please remember to schedule testing well in advance of the Fair. If there is no record of a negative test, the animal WILL NOT be permitted to enter the Fair. If you have questions, please call NYS Ag and Markets, Division of Animal Industry at 518-457-3502.

County fair officials are responsible for reviewing all certificates of veterinary inspection (CVI) for compliance with state regulations and for verifying individual identification of exhibited animals presented on a valid CVI. (Currently, a CVI is required for cattle, sheep, goats, swine, deer, llamas, monkeys, elephants and miscellaneous ruminants.) The county fair official is responsible for rejecting any animal that does not meet the documentation requirements or is not properly identified. A rejection document must be issued for all rejections. The county fair official must sign and date all satisfactory CVI's.

Division of Animal Industry (DAI) veterinarians and veterinary technicians are responsible for conducting an animal health inspection of all animals at the fair with the exception of horses (see below). The initial inspection will be conducted at or shortly after the arrival of the animals. Specific animal arrival and inspection schedules must be established and adhered to.

Daily walk-through inspections will be conducted by DAI personnel. Fair officials are responsible for bringing any animal health concerns to the attention of the DAI veterinarian or technician.

Horse show personnel are responsible for reviewing EIA and rabies vaccination documentation for all horses entering the grounds for compliance with current regulations. The horse show report supplied by DAI must be completed and returned to DAI personnel. Any equine health concerns must be reported to DAI personnel.

NOTE: State Fair Procedures

CVI and animal health inspections will be conducted by DAI personnel. All horses will be inspected at the horse check station.

Animal Health Rejections

All animal rejections for health reasons must be made by the DAI veterinarian. Suspicion of communicable disease is adequate grounds for rejection. Confirmed diagnosis is not required since timely removal of suspicious animals is necessary to protect the remaining animals. All decisions are final. Fair personnel will be notified of all rejections and are responsible for removal of the animals from the grounds immediately. The State Veterinarian retains the authority to order the removal of all animals originating from the same premises when a potentially serious communicable disease is suspected in any animals in the group. Vesicular diseases are of particular concern. Animals listed on the same CVI or originating from the same address are assumed to be from the same premises.

Preparation for the Fair

Contagious Diseases: All animals must be free from contagious disease. Examples of contagious diseases for which animals have been denied entry or rejected from fairs include the following: ringworm, warts, mange, sore mouth, respiratory infection and contagious hoof infections.

Animal Identification: Animals must be uniquely identified. Acceptable identification allows positive matching of the animal to all accompanying documents including papers with laboratory test results and vaccination statements. If a sketch or photograph is to be used for official identification of an animal, the sketch or photograph must contain the signature of the attending veterinarian and date. Horse sketches and descriptions should reference color pattern, hair whorls, chestnuts, scars and other markings. Llama drawings, as for horses, must positively identify the individual animal. A name or a statement of color without additional distinguishing features or man made identification is not acceptable identification.

Follow Drug and Vaccine Withholding Times: In order to prevent the contamination of food products, labeled withholding times should be strictly adhered to in food producing animals that have been treated with any chemical (drug) or have had vaccine administered.

Isolation: In addition to the possibility that the stress of moving can result in a healthy animal becoming ill, assembling groups of animals increases the chance of exposure to contagious disease. All animals returning from a fair or show should be isolated from the herd or flock (no direct or indirect contact) for at least two weeks after returning to the premise of origin.

Proof of Vaccination: A signed, written statement from the attending veterinarian is required as proof of vaccination. A valid animal health certificate, which has the vaccination(s) listed and is signed by the issuing veterinarian is acceptable proof of vaccination. The date of vaccination must be listed on all certificates.

Reasons for Fair Entrance Denial in Past Years
- Testing requirements not fulfilled
- No CVI presented or animals not listed on CVI.
- Test time constraints not met
- Forged documents
- Mange, Ringworm, Warts, Respiratory Disease or other contagious disease
- Required vaccination(s) not administered.
- Vaccination time constraints not met
- Inadequate proof of vaccination

- Lack of or incomplete identification
- Identification between documents varies for the same animal
- Invalid Interstate Charts

Disease status can change. Stay informed about developing animal health issues. Fair entrance requirements may need to be modified.

Don’t wait until the last moment to prepare your animal(s) for the fair. If you have any questions or comments about entrance requirements, you can contact your regional state veterinarian/veterinary technician or the NYS Department of Agriculture, Division of Animal Industry, Albany, NY at 518-457-3502.

Certificate of Veterinary Inspection

New York State Animals: A valid New York State intrastate CVI (form AI 61) is required for: Cattle, Sheep, Goats, Swine, Llamas, Deer, Monkeys and miscellaneous ruminants. Each animal must be individually and positively identified on the health chart. The CVI must be issued by an Accredited Veterinarian on or after May 1 of the current year. Be sure to bring your animal's health papers with you to the fair.

Non-New York State Animals: All animals entering New York State must satisfy import health and test requirements for that species. The interstate CVI is valid for 30 days from the date of issuance with regard to entrance into New York State. During the fair season (July 1 through Labor day) valid interstate CVIs can be used multiple times for entrance into fairs. The initial entrance into a fair must be within 30 days of issuance. In order for this certificate to be used at a later fair, it must be initialed and dated by a fair official. If it was issued greater than 30 days prior to movement and is not initialed, the animal will be denied admission. In addition to state entrance requirements, animal(s) must satisfy individual fair admission requirements. After entry into New York State, an interstate health chart can serve as a fair health certificate if fair requirements (in addition to the interstate requirements) have been fulfilled. Note: All vaccine requirements must be met during the duration of the fair. CVI's with vaccinations out of date at the time of the fair are invalid and the animals will be rejected.

Rabies Vaccination

In consideration of public health concerns, it is strongly recommended that all mammals to be exhibited at any fair in NYS be vaccinated against rabies. The NYS Interdepartmental Rabies Committee recognizes the probable efficacy and safety of killed rabies vaccine for off-label mammalian species; however, in cases of rabies exposure, the NYS Department of Health cannot recognize, as protected, rabies vaccinated animals for which there is no licensed rabies vaccine. Exhibitors should consult their Proof of rabies vaccination will be required at all fairs for those species that a USDA licensed vaccine is available (cattle, cats, dogs, horses, ferrets and sheep). Proof of vaccination must include the signature of the veterinarian. The vaccine must be administered at least 14 days prior to arrival on the fairgrounds but no greater than the labeled time specified for active protection against rabies. The animal’s rabies vaccination status must remain current throughout its stay on the fairgrounds. Rabies vaccination of all other mammalian species is strongly recommended. Some fairs may require rabies vaccination of mammalian species not indicated on the label. Please inquire locally.

Minimum Age for Vaccination: Animals 105 days of age or older on the date of arrival at the fair must be vaccinated for rabies (for those species requiring vaccination). Booster Vaccination: Animals previously vaccinated for rabies but whose vaccine status has expired, are eligible for exhibition upon receiving a booster vaccination. Proof of previous vaccination is required.

NOTE: Rabies titers in lieu of current rabies vaccination is not acceptable.

A fourteen day rabies vaccination requirement is the minimum time frame that will help to ensure protection of animals against rabies while on the fairgrounds. It is preferable to establish rabies immunity well in advance of the fair season. Keep in mind that a non-immunized animal (or an animal whose protective vaccination status has expired), exposed to rabies virus prior to receiving its vaccination, is not likely to be protected. Exhibitors should consult with their veterinarian about vaccinating their animal(s) against rabies as soon as possible. As animals receive their booster vaccination, we will be developing a population that is protected against rabies to the broadest degree possible.

- A photocopy of rabies vaccination records to be kept by the fair must be provided to each superintendent or entry to the fairgrounds will be denied.

Albany County Health Dept. recommends vaccination two (2) months prior to the fair.

With regard to rabies Albany County Health Dept. has requested that:

- “Vaccination two (2) months prior to the fair is recommended for all animals but is required at least fourteen (14) days prior to arrival at the fair grounds.”
- Include precaution to be taken with animals vaccinated with off-label vaccine or those juveniles that are too young (less than 3 months old) or that recently become of age for vaccination. “We advise that in general we do not recommend that you allow fair visitors to feed or handle the mouths of your animals. It is particularly important that members of the public do not have contact with animals if they are too young for rabies vaccination, were vaccinated for less than a two week period or vaccinated with an off-label vaccine.”
- Include reminder to owners to watch/observe the health of animals for approximately ten (10) days after they are brought home from the fair; and report any sudden death or neurological signs to a veterinarian.
- Respond to and report all animal bites to the on-site medical service.
- If due to an animals age it can’t be vaccinated at least 14 days prior to the fair, it should be housed where visitors can’t pet or handle it.
- Post signs at the fair which discourage unsupervised handling of animals by visitors (i.e. “For health and safety reasons, please do not pet or handle animals without the owner’s permission”).

SOREMOUTH IN SHEEP AND GOATS

Sheep and goats with lesions characteristic of Soremouth are not allowed to be exhibited. Any sheep originating from the same flock are considered exposed and must be removed from the grounds. The fair is responsible for cleaning and disinfecting the pens immediately after removal. The CVI used for entrance of the sheep is immediately invalid for subsequent fairs. A statement to that effect will be written on the CVI. In order to exhibit at later fairs, a new CVI will be required including the complete flock inspection.

Fair Entrance Requirements by Species

If a species is not mentioned in this booklet, please check with NYS Department of Agriculture/Division of Animal Industry at 518-457-3502 for specific fair entrance requirements.

BIRDS

A copy of certificate should be sent in with entry form.

It is recommended that you consult with a veterinarian or avian specialist about vaccinating poultry against infectious laryngotracheitis (ILT).

CATTLE

b. All goats must be identified by a legible registration tattoo or a USDA approved official identification tag or microchip implant (as long as the implant is recorded on the registration paper and the owner of the goat brings an implant reader). Official tags can be obtained from an accredited veterinarian or by contacting USDA at 1-866-873-2824. Ear tags are free and USDA will mail you a tag packet which includes an ear tag order form. You will need to complete the order form and return it to the USDA office for processing. You will receive your ear tags 2-3 weeks after the order is received by USDA.

c. Veterinary Statement - The health chart must contain a written statement from the issuing accredited veterinarian certifying that there has been no evidence of contagious disease (animal or public health concern) in the herd of origin. (inspected after May 1).

d. If evidence of soremouth (contagious ecthyma) is found on any goat, the entire exhibit shall immediately be removed from the fair premises with the holding pens cleaned and disinfected immediately after removal.

Albany County Health Department Requires That Goats Be Vaccinated For Rabies, Consult Your Veterinarian (see Rabies Vaccination, Pages 14 and 15).

SPECIAL NOTICE

Albany County Health Department requires extra care in the housing and handling of off-label vaccinated animals. As a result of this requirement, goats and rabbits will be housed in such a manner as to reduce contact with the public. Exhibitors of goats and rabbits will be expected to cooperate fully with this requirement.

HORSES (Equidae)

a. Equine Infectious Anemia Test (EIA/Coggins) - A valid EIA chart documenting that the animal has been tested (any USDA approved test) within the current or previous calendar years (2014 and 2013 for this fair season) and found to be negative for EIA infection, is required of all equines 6 months of age and older. The animal identification noted on all accompanying documents must match the description on the official EIA chart. (see Animal Identification, page 14). Horses less than 6 months of age accompanied by a test negative dam do not have to be tested. Horses less than 6 months of age NOT accompanied by the dam must be test negative.

b. Rabies Vaccination - Proof of active immunization against rabies required (See Proof of Vaccination, page 14 & Rabies Vaccination, pages 14 and 15)

SHEEP

DAIRY, BEEF, SHEEP, GOATS, DOGS, HORSES, RABBITS, POULTRY

(Note: Parents of youth 5-8 years of age and special needs children should read the special information (#21 on page 18) before making animal entries and check your county’s rules about Cloverbuds showing animals.)

1. Pre-entries must be in by July 15. Only those animals pre-entered may be shown at the fair. In addition to other livestock health requirements, all entries to the Altamont Fair for dairy cattle, dairy goats, beef cattle, horses, sheep and dogs, must be vaccinated for rabies. DO NOT SEND RABIES CERTIFICATE WITH YOUR PRE-ENTRY, EXCEPT FOR HORSES AND DOGS. Proof of vaccination must be shown when your animal(s) arrive at the fair. This must be in the form of an official certificate, signed by your licensed veterinarian and dated no later than 14 days prior to the date your animals will arrive at the fair. Bring an extra copy to the fair to be placed on file with superintendent.

2. All animals must be dehorned; no un-neutered male animals except ram lambs and market lambs may be exhibited. However, horned breeds of sheep may be exhibited.

3. All Dairy, Beef, Goats, Dogs, Horses, Poultry and Rabbits exhibited must be owned by the 4-H member exhibiting by June 1 of the current year. Registration papers for purebreds, and sire's name and number for others will be required. Proof of ownership must be presented at request of Superintendent. Refer to Ag. and Markets Law 350.9 or 4-H members may exhibit non-owned animals according to the following guidelines:

a. Philosophy of non-ownership - to give a youngster the opportunity to experience the responsibility of caring for and showing an animal. Non-ownership allows youth this experience that he/she may not otherwise be able to have.

b. Non-ownership is not available to youth already owning an animal of that species.

c. Youth are limited to ONE NON-OWNED ANIMAL PER SPECIES.

d. These non-owned animals must meet all regulations (i.e., dates, registration, health, etc.) pertinent to that species.

e. At FAIR those members showing NON-OWNED animals must supply: 1) registration paper, 2) health paper and 3) non-ownership certificate.

Non-ownership Certificates are available in the 4-H office. These must be filled out and filed in the office by June 1 of the current year for Dairy, Beef, Sheep, Goats, Horses and Dogs. A new certificate must be filed each year.

4. Animals shown in 4-H classes must be housed where assigned by the Barn Superintendent and must use standard 4-H livestock sign with exhibit or will forfeit 4-H premium.

5. All livestock must be entered with Superintendent in Charge when arriving on fairgrounds for the first time. See animal arrival times on the schedule in the back of the book.

6. 4-H animals may be shown in open classes providing they are properly entered and entry fees paid.

7. An individual may not show more than two entries in a class, except horse may have only one entry per class.

8. OVERNIGHT POLICY: There will be an adult on duty in the livestock building overnight. No one else will be allowed to stay overnight in the building. The opening time for the barn each morning (including any special time for show days) will be determined at the Monday barn meeting.

9. No smoking will be permitted in the Livestock Building.

10. Grade or registered animals may be shown. Entry will be certified by leader.

11. All exhibitors must enter and participate in the fitting and showmanship class appropriate for their age and experience.

12. Fitting and showmanship classes will be the first class in each show schedule except poultry and rabbits.

13. SHOW DRESS CODE: Each exhibitor may wear a 4-H insignia during the show. Other dress is specified in fitting and showmanship hints for species. It is the responsibility of exhibitors to see that all his or her assistants follow the dress code.

14. EXHIBIT AREA DRESS CODE: All exhibitors must wear shoes or sneakers at all times. No clogs, sandals or open shoes allowed. For appropriate show attire, refer to fitting and showmanship reference sheet.

15. CARE OF ANIMALS: The amount of assistance provided by parents in caring for animals should depend on the exhibitor’s age. It is expected that younger members will need more assistance. As youth get older, it is expected that they will take full responsibility for the care and feeding of their animals while at the fair. HERDSMAN'S CONTEST - Awards will be made to the exhibitors who show themselves to be the best herdsman. This will include the following points: Personal appearance, neatness and cleanliness of stalls, bedding of animals on exhibit, manner in which he handles or cares for the exhibit, cooperation with the Superintendents in Charge in keeping the entry exhibit neat and attractive. Final herdsmanship check for livestock will be made on the last Sunday of the fair by 6:00 P.M. unless prior arrangements are made with the 4-H Superintendents in Charge.

16. EQUIPMENT: Each exhibitor attending is expected to provide and be responsible for his own shovels, forks, brooms, rakes, etc. Sufficient wheelbarrows will be provided by the fair.

17. Only ribbons awarded as part of official current Altamont Fair may be displayed.

18. Championship ribbons will be awarded as indicated in each section.

19. In addition to the standard 4-H livestock sign supplied by 4-H and 4-H club banners an exhibitor will be allowed one farm sign per species, no larger than 2 feet by 3 feet to include exhibitor’s name, farm name, breed, address, farm logo and 4-H logo.

20. Release of 4-H Livestock - 4-H livestock will be released beginning at 8:00 P.M. on Sunday, August 17. There will be a designated area for the parking of all livestock trailers. Exhibitors will no longer be able to park them on the hill or along the fence-line by the barns. All loading will be supervised by the superintendent for each barn. Exhibitors and truckers should be reminded that the fair is still open to the public at livestock release time and extreme care must be taken in moving vehicles on and off the grounds and loading animals.

21. Special Information for parents about showing of livestock by youth ages 5-8 and special needs children - Includes Horses, Dairy and Beef Cattle, Sheep, Goats, and Dogs. Opportunities for Cloverbud members to show livestock are limited. Check with your county for your rules.

Remember: Ages for participation in various 4-H activities are as of January 1, 2014. Also, each county involved in the Altamont Fair may have a different age policy. Ages for participation in the fair are based on each county’s own policies. Cloverbuds may only enter Cloverbud classes which are For Exhibition Only. All Cloverbud exhibitors will receive a participation ribbon.

If, after considering fair participation with livestock, it is decided to wait until the member is older; remember that there are many other projects that can be exhibited.

Some things to consider:

- The consideration of participating in the fair should start with the selection of the kind of animal that will be used in the 4-H project. What animal is the member capable of caring for and preparing for exhibition? This depends on the child’s age and abilities. Chickens and rabbits offer a good basic beginning project. They take minimal space and expense to get started. They are smaller, allowing smaller youngsters to handle them. Other large animals such as goats, sheep, and horses are also possibilities. However, they require more resources to get started. Younger members working with these animals also need one-on-one supervision when caring for and working with these larger animals.

Beef, dairy cattle and dogs are not appropriate as a project animal for this age group. Ultimately, the parents have to decide what kind of animal their child should have as his/her project.

- In selecting the specific animal for the 4-H project, it is important to match the animal with the youngster. In most cases, starting with a young animal is probably a good idea. Youth and animal will grow together. Other considerations should be the animal’s temperament and physical conformation. It is always a good idea to purchase from a reputable breeder.

- Before any 4-H member participates in showing at the fair, it is expected that he/she has learned about caring for and working with their project animal. While the 4-H leader may be helpful in determining this, the parent is in the best position to determine that the member has adequately accomplished this part of their project. Are both animal and member ready for the fair?

- When considering at what age a member is ready to start exhibiting their animal at the fair the parent should consider:
  a. Fair is a weeklong activity requiring daily care of the animal by the member.
  b. Fair is a public place with lots of people. It is not a place to leave youth ages 5-8 unsupervised. 4-H volunteer leaders are often on hand to help but cannot be responsible for constant supervision of your children.
  c. Animals are moved from their pens to the show ring at show time. This is the responsibility of the member and parent or another older teen or adult designated by the parent.
  d. While it is the responsibility of the member to lead and move the animal around the ring, these early years of showing are considered more instructional than they are competitive. 4-H will recruit some parents, leaders, or other adults to act as "spotters" around the ring to step in and assist any member who has problems with their animals. The ultimate goal is for the member to have a positive experience. Safety of exhibitor and spectator are also major concerns. If for any reason the situation looks like there is a chance of injury to the individual, other exhibitors, or the public, the animal and exhibitor will be excused from the class.
  e. Animals are judged on their physical conformation, evidence of proper care, and the exhibitor’s ability to present the animal to the judge. The judge will talk with the exhibitor and offer reasons why they placed the class of animals in the order they did. Ribbons are awarded on a participation basis. Some experts say that younger children may have problems accepting criticism of their animals and their work. The level of maturity of the member and their ability to deal with constructive criticism are also considerations as to whether they are ready for participation in the fair.
  f. The final decision is yours as the parent; once the parent(s) have decided that their child is ready to show livestock at the fair, they should help the member complete the proper entry form. They then must also sign the release that is found on the back of the livestock entry form. No entry for a youth between the ages of 5 and 8 years of age can be accepted without this signed release.

As a result of this requirement, goats, and rabbits will be housed and handled in such a manner as to reduce contact with the public. Exhibitors of goats and rabbits will be expected to cooperate fully with this requirement.

3. The rabbit show will be held in the livestock show ring. For those with rabbits on the grounds, please bring suitable carrying cages to transport your animals to the show ring. For those bringing animals for the day, transport in suitable cages to the show ring. It is important not to stop and allow fair visitors to touch your animals on the way to and from the show ring. The ring will be set up with show tables toward the front of the tent and an exhibitors-only area toward the back. All animals are to be kept in the exhibitors-only area until it is time to bring them to the show table. No animals are to be left in vehicles in the parking lot before or after the show.
