

THE GEORGE WASHINGTON UNIVERSITY

WASHINGTON, DC

Research Days: A Showcase of Research, Scholarship, and Creative Endeavor April 2 & 3, 2013 Call for Abstracts

Undergraduate, graduate, and postdoctoral students have the opportunity to showcase their work and compete for prize money at the 18th Annual Research Days. This event is dedicated to highlighting the breadth of research, creative scholarship, and cultural discovery on issues of major disciplinary, multidisciplinary, and global significance being done at GW by students and postdoctoral researchers. We sincerely hope that you will take this opportunity to present your research to the GW community so that we can all learn and benefit from your activities.

All abstracts must be submitted by February 24, 2013 and are required to have advisor approval.

Highlights:

- Two-day event featuring poster presentations and keynote speakers
- April 2nd focuses on arts, business, education, engineering, humanities, law, sciences, and other topics
- April 3rd focuses on health and medicine topics
- Abstract instructions, the abstract submission form, and sample abstracts can be found at <http://research.gwu.edu/research-days-2013>

For more information, we encourage you to visit the Research Days website, or contact resdays@gwu.edu.

Please see the important information below for the day you will be participating.

Important Information for April 2, 2013

To participate, you are required submit an abstract of your research by February 24, 2013. Review the instructions and complete the electronic abstract submission at: <http://research.gwu.edu/research-days-2013>. As a participant, you are required to make a poster (or equivalent presentation) for April 2nd. Monetary prizes will be awarded to the best presentations as determined by faculty judges.

Important Information for April 3, 2013

April 3, 2013 is the date all faculty in SMHS, SON, SPHHS and students engaged in biomedical and health research, Residents, The Institute for Biomedical Sciences, Children's National Medical Center & The DC VA Hospital are invited to present their research.

Last year, there were a record number of abstracts submitted and 321 presented. Please note that if your abstract is accepted and you are not making an oral presentation, you will be required to make a poster for Research Day.

You will find the directions for abstract submission and the abstract form at:
<http://research.gwu.edu/research-days-2013>.