

e-Co Leadership Coaching is a vision for One Humanity, providing the next generation of coaches with the whole person and whole systems framework to deepen and expand their contribution in the world. You are the system.

A foundational coach training certification of the GW Center for Excellence in Public Leadership

Who is the program for?

e-Co Leadership Coaching is designed for leaders in public service, private organizations and NGO's, change makers, entrepreneurs, social activists, educators, facilitators, organizational development consultants, and anyone committed to elevating consciousness in the world through the profession of coaching.

Join a community of coaches who inspire and serve a flourishing global ecosystem.

Why e-Co Leadership Coaching?

- Accelerate the One Humanity Agenda
- Cultivate and expand the global consciousness field
- Planting e-Co Leadership Coaching seeds in communities and nations globally
- Creating a coach practitioner network through our Certification Program & working on real world projects through the One Humanity Lab

Program Features:

- Whole Person & Whole Systems
- Public Service Commitment
- Consciousness for the Greater Good
- Nature-Centered
- World-Class Faculty
- Complexity Toolbox
- Diversity Principles
- Somatics Focus
- Co-Creation
- ICF Portfolio Work

Program Cycle

January 23-25, 2020

Seed:
Coaching, Community & Consciousness

February 20-22, 2020

Roots:
Coaching Model, Flow & Evolutionary Disciplines

March 19-21, 2020

Leaves & Stem:
Deepening Presence, Expanding Contribution

June 18-20, 2020

Flower & Puffball:
Learning Integration & launching the One Humanity Lab

ICF Credentialing:

The 140+ program curriculum is aligned to the ICF PCC Certification path. Application for credentialing will be submitted upon inaugural program completion in June 2020.

Details:

Tuition: $ 12,888
Application Deadline:
October 30, 2019

Contact:

Ina Gjikondi
Program Director
Gjikondi@gwu.edu
202-994-5313