ARTICLE ONE: NAME

The name of the organization shall be the Graduate Student Association of Rice University, herein abbreviated as GSA or referred to as the association.

ARTICLE TWO: DEFINITION

The GSA shall be the incorporation of the general graduate student body at Rice University.

ARTICLE THREE: MEMBERSHIP

All full-time, regularly enrolled graduate students of Rice University and only said students shall be members of the association. Members shall pay semester dues collected by the university at the beginning of the Fall and Spring semesters.

ARTICLE FOUR: INSIGNIA, MASCOT, AND MOTTO

Section 1: Insignia
The device or coat of arms representing the GSA shall be a green field charged with eight conjoined white lozenges, with a white chief bearing a red book, with seven gold seals and gold edging, between two black grackles. A banner depicting this device shall be used at formal events of the association and the university.
Section 2: Mascot
The mascot of the association shall be the black grackle.

Section 3: Colors
The official colors of the association shall be green and white.

Section 4: Motto
The motto of the association shall be bonis avibus, literally "(under) good birds," referring to the association's mascot. The phrase signified favorable omens to ancient Romans and is a reflection of the association's perseverance and optimism in all seasons.

ARTICLE FIVE: GRADUATE STUDENT COUNCIL

Section 1: Role and Responsibilities of the Graduate Student Council
All legislative power of the association shall be vested in the Graduate Student Council. The Council shall determine association policies, shall elect executive officers of the association, shall approve social and cultural events, shall authorize the association's annual budget, shall hear graduate students' concerns and complaints, shall establish rules and ordinances for the greater good of graduate students at the university, shall issue resolutions and reports encouraging the advancement of graduate studies and the betterment of graduate student life, and shall, directly or through the president or appointees, represent the association and its members to the university administration, trustees, faculty, staff, alumni, undergraduates, or other bodies.

Section 2: Members
The Council shall consist of the executive officers, as defined in Article Six, and one elected representative from each academic program.

Section 3: Selection
Representatives to Council shall be elected to one-year terms by the regularly enrolled, full-time graduate students in their respective departments.

Section 4: Voting
Representatives shall each have one vote on all questions.

Section 5: Executive Board and Voting
The President shall vote only to break a tie vote of Council and the Parliamentarian may only vote to break a tie vote for elections. No other executive officer may vote in Council, even in proxy, or serve as a department representative.
ARTICLE SIX: EXECUTIVE OFFICERS AND DIRECTORS

Section 1: Executive Committee
All executive power of the GSA shall be vested in the President and the Executive Committee, which shall be composed of the President, Vice President of Community Engagement, Vice President of Student Advocacy, Vice President of Administration, Vice President of Finance, and Vice President of Student Development. In addition to these elected executive officers, the association's faculty sponsor, staff advisor and the Parliamentarian shall serve as non-voting members of the Executive Committee. The elected executive officers and the Parliamentarian shall be members of the association.

Section 2: Cabinet
The President shall be advised by a Cabinet, which shall be composed of the other executive officers. The Cabinet shall consist of all executive officers, directors, and the Parliamentarian.

Section 3: President
The President of the GSA shall determine agenda for Council, Executive Committee, and Cabinet meetings; shall implement and oversee the execution of all programs, ordinances, and directives established by the Graduate Student Council; shall preside at all regular and called meetings of the Graduate Student Council, the Executive Committee, and the Cabinet; shall serve ex officio on all committees of the Council and the Cabinet; and shall represent the GSA on and off campus. Furthermore, the President shall call meetings of the Council at the request of at least three representatives and may also call meetings at his or her own discretion; shall, with the advice and consent of the Council, shall oversee the policies and procedures of the GSA loan fund program; shall serve as one of the graduate student representatives on the university's Graduate Council; shall submit annually to Council, with the Vice President of Finance, for consideration and approval, a budget proposal for the association; and shall, with the co-signature of the Vice President of Finance or other executive officer, disburse funds from the accounts of the GSA as approved by the Council. The President appoints all Directors with the approval of the Council.

Section 4: Vice President of Student Advocacy
The Vice-President of Student Advocacy shall oversee the policies and procedures in the association's efforts to improve student life; coordinate and foster relations with the various organizations and offices of the university community, including the Rice Women's Resource Center; appoint standing and ad hoc committees for the association, designate chairs for the association's standing and ad hoc committees, appoint representatives to joint committees, and name other representatives to University administration, trustees, faculty, undergraduate, and other groups; shall present nominations to the President and Council for graduate representatives to the ombudsmen selection committees for University Court and Honor Council; and shall preside in the absence of the President. Furthermore, should the President resign the office, withdraw from the university, or cease to be a member of the association in good standing, the Vice President of Student Advocacy shall assume the duties and responsibilities of the office of President. The Vice President of Student Advocacy, along with the Vice President of Finance, also has oversight over all student clubs funded by an independent student tax. The Vice President of Student Advocacy will also oversee and assist the Wellbeing Director and the Sustainability Director.
