Instructions: Look at the 12 main areas surrounding the learner (e.g. professional network, online communities, etc.) and check how many of these you currently access for your development. As a group, determine the average number (out of 12) currently being used for professional development.