

Physics Department Code of Conduct

We affirm that our shared humanity is fundamental to the pursuit of physics. Everyone shall be treated with decency and as individuals worthy of care.

We pledge, individually and as a community, to...

Foster respectful, accepting, and supportive working environments.

Honor all identities within our community.

Behave respectfully in one-on-one and group interactions.

Contribute to and welcome open dialogue and constructive criticism.

Reject all forms of harassment, discrimination, and abuse.

Improve our climate.

This code of conduct is in line with the University of Oregon's Community Standards Affirmation and the codes of conduct of the UO Physics Reading Room, Society of Physics Students and UO Physics Graduate Students. See <https://physics.uoregon.edu/physics-department-code-of-conduct> for more details and <http://respect.uoregon.edu> for information on resources and incident reporting.
