

College of Design Academic Affairs Committee
Spring 2018: Curriculum Report

1. New or revised courses:

Architecture

New courses

ARCH 622     Design and Communication: approved to UOCC pending minor revisions

History of Art and Architecture

New courses

ARH 100     Introduction to Visual Culture: approved to UOCC pending minor revisions

2. Curricular proposals and revisions:

Art

Revisions to Art BFA, approved to UG Council

Revision of the five-year, 220-credit BFA in Art to a four-year, 180-credit BFA

Approved by UGC for Fall 2018

History of Art and Architecture

Revisions to ARH honors criteria, approved to Undergrad Council

Changes to eligibility requirements, changes to process for Honors College thesis to serve as departmental honors

Approved by UGC for Fall 2018

Planning, Public Policy, and Management

Proposal for a new graduate certificate in Arts Management, approved to Graduate Council

Revisions requested by Graduate Council

Proposal for a new PhD program in Planning and Public Affairs, approved to Graduate Council, pending clarifications and external review, scheduled for fall term

3. Other matters

Interior Architecture

Proposal for Interior Architecture to restructure as a department within the School of Architecture and Environment

Committee provided feedback and supported proposal. No vote required by UO policy

4. Upcoming Fall term 2018

Architecture

Curricular revision

Revise the graduate requirement in architectural history from 3 electives with temporal distribution requirements, to one required global architectural history course and any two electives

New courses

ARCH 631     Global Architecture of the Modern Era