

To ensure that students and parents are aware of rules and regulations governing student life while students attend the Summer Music Camps at University of Oregon, both students and parents are asked to sign the "Medical Release and Rule Acceptance Form" indicating that these rules have been read and understood. These regulations, based on the University of Oregon Student Conduct Code, have been drawn up to ensure the comfort and safety of all students and to provide a secure, stable environment for the school as a whole.

PLEASE NOTE: These rules will be strictly enforced whenever students are in the building or on the grounds of the University of Oregon.

Disciplinary action, which usually results in dismissal from the camp, may be initiated by the University and sanctions may be imposed against any student found guilty of committing, attempting to commit, or intentionally assisting in the commission of any of the following prohibited forms of conduct:

1. Failure to observe living unit hours by being outside of the room or building past designated times without specific permission from counselors.

Hours will be as follows:

Sunday, Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday	10:00 p.m.
Friday, Saturday	11:00 p.m.

2. Unauthorized entry into University-related living units that disrupts sleep or study, or that damages the physical facility, or that invades the privacy of others.

No boys in girls' rooms or girls in boys' rooms between 10pm and 8am.

3. Failure to attend camp activities on a regular basis.

4. Failure to attend scheduled performances in which the individual is a participant or other scheduled performances that are designed for the musical growth of Summer Music Camp participants.

5. Failure to demonstrate a cooperative, positive attitude and to maintain good conduct in classes and rehearsals that are part of the Summer Music Camps.

6. Tampering with fire-fighting equipment, turning in a false alarm or engaging in behavior that constitutes a significant fire hazard.

7. Use of unreasonably loud stereo equipment in the housing units of the University or at the School of Music facilities or on the grounds of the University while attending the Summer Music Camps.

8. Disorderly conduct, unreasonable noise, or behavior that results in unreasonable annoyance in the housing units as well as the School of Music. This includes pranks of all kinds.

*9. Possession or consumption of alcoholic beverages or the furnishing of alcoholic beverages on University-owned or controlled property or at University-sponsored or supervised activities.

10. Intentional disruptions or interference with the process of instruction provided by the Summer Music Camps.

11. Damage, destruction, theft, or unauthorized use of personal property located on the University campus or owned and controlled by the University.

12. Unauthorized entry into or use of University property (e.g. School of Music), including facilities, residence halls, equipment, or resources.

*13. Possession, use, or threatened use of firearms, knives, explosives, or dangerous chemicals.

*14. Illegal use, possession, or furnishing of dangerous or narcotic drugs on University-owned or controlled property or at University sponsored or supervised activities.

15. Indecent or unacceptable conduct on University property or at University sponsored or supervised activities.

16. Physical abuse or conduct that threatens imminent physical harm or endangers the health or safety of any person on University property or at University sponsored or supervised activities.

*17. Unauthorized smoking. It is against the law for anyone under the age of 18 to smoke. Smoking is prohibited for campers under the age of 18.

18. Any misconduct that requires a counselor to notify the camp director will result in the camper being sent home from camp.

*We have zero tolerance for illegal drugs, alcohol and weapons. Offending students will be sent home immediately.
