

Bitterroot Valley Map Rubric

Criteria	Developing 1	Adequate 2	Exceptional 3
Scale	Scale is attempted in main features such as the Bitterroot Valley, Bitterroot River, and Bitterroot Mountains	Scale is accurate in basic geographic features	Scale is consistent and accurate throughout all map features
Geographic Features	The Bitterroot Valley, Bitterroot River and Bitterroot Mountains are represented	Basic geographic features are represented	The valley floor, river and tributaries, and mountains are presented in detailed format
Place Names	Salish and or English place names are included	Several Salish and English place names are marked on the map in their appropriate locations	Salish and English place names are marked on the map in appropriate locations with their meanings provided
Cultural Geography	Flora and fauna are represented as design elements	Flora and fauna are incorporated into the map	Traditional land use is depicted in appropriate geographic areas
Design/Aesthetics	Minimal design elements are included	A basic design element is present throughout the map	The map has a consistent and relevant design element that complements the map content
Legend	Legend includes a compass rose	A compass rose accompanies several symbols related to map features	Detailed symbols, a compass rose and a scale are included in the legend