

ANTH 401: Oregon Coast Archaeological Field School

Summer: (9/2 - 9/17) Location: Oregon Institute of Marine Biology (OIMB)

Learn the fundamentals of archaeological survey and excavation on the beautiful southern Oregon coast at Bullards Beach State Park in Bandon. Participants will be based at OIMB in Charleston, OR (visit <http://oimb.uoregon.edu>).

Great opportunity for anthropology majors or undergraduates interested in archaeology, anthropology, interdisciplinary science, and Native American studies.

Fees: $2354 – includes 8 credits, housing, meals, transportation, equipment, supplies, and project T-shirt.

For more information contact Dr. Scott M. Fitzpatrick (smfitzpa@cas.uoregon.edu) or Dr. Nicholas Jew (njew@uoregon.edu)

Or join us on facebook: UO group: Oregon Coast Archaeology Project.