Course Description
Nonprofit Legal Issues is a 4-credit course for those who will be managing and leading nonprofits. In one class per week, using practical examples, this course will review and put into context legal issues affecting nonprofit organizations. A wide range of subjects will be covered, giving a broad layman’s overview of many basic areas of law, along with best practices and red flag areas. Readings will be articles and other practical materials. This course is not intended for those who will practice law.

Course Objectives/Learning Outcomes
Upon completion of this course students will be able to:
1. Understand the broad categories of legal risk to nonprofit organizations.
2. Recognize resources available to nonprofit leaders related to legal issues.
3. Understand bright legal lines, i.e. “do and don’t”, necessary for management and oversight.
4. Critically assess situations for the need for outside legal assistance.
5. Apply legal principles and analysis to day-to-day operations, management and oversight.

Course Website
The course website will be located on the University of Oregon’s Canvas system.
https://canvas.uoregon.edu/

The class syllabus, announcements and other materials will be posted on the established course website. Please check the course website frequently for updates. In addition, make sure that the University registrar has your correct email address; we will use this email address to communicate with you as needed.

Required Readings
The required readings for this class will be available on the internet. The reading list will be on the course Canvas site. Students are required to read the materials in advance of the specified class.

Assignments and Course Grades
The course grade will be based on the following components:

PPPM 488: Quizzes/Class Participation and Discussion  25%
Student On Point for Two Classes  25%
Nonprofit Legal Issues in the News  25%
Final Paper  25%

PPPM 588: Per UO Credit Hour and Workload Policies, please note that graduate students are expected to perform not only additional work but also work that is more in-depth and of higher quality and expected to perform roughly a third more work than their undergraduate counterparts.

Quizzes/Class Participation and Discussion 20%
Student On Point for Two Classes  20%
Nonprofit Legal Issues in the News  20%
White Paper Project   20%
Final Paper    20%

Quizzes, Class Participation and Discussion
Students are expected to have obtained, read, and retained the readings for each week, to come to class prepared to discuss their content and implications, and to meaningfully contribute to the class discussion in every class. A quiz will be given at the beginning of class on the current week's readings.

Student On Point
Each student will be expected to be a Student On Point for two classes by reading the materials in depth, thinking deeply about implications and issues raised, helping to share questions and insights during class discussion and responding when the other students aren't responding. Given that we have a three-hour class, invigorating discussion and participation is essential! Student On Point will submit a “Top Ten” list and present the Top Ten to the class the following week as closure for the previous week's learning. The student’s Top Ten can be on the subject and class overall or on a narrower topic that interests the student. The instructor will collect these into one document and post in Canvas Files for the benefit of all students.

Nonprofit Legal Issues in the News
Students will prepare two 1-page summaries and make two 5-minute presentations concerning two nonprofit legal issues in the news. The summary and presentation will relate to the class topics of either the class in which you are presenting or from the previous class. The summaries are due by email to the instructor at least an hour before class.

White Paper Project (PPPM 588 ONLY)
Students will participate in a group project. Each group will prepare a White Paper intended to be a general overview of a legal issue. The audience for the white paper is nonprofit managers and board members. A higher level of professionalism, rigor, research and effort will be expected of graduate students with a view that graduate students imminently will be entering into nonprofit management. Due before Thanksgiving.

Final Paper
PPPM 488 students will be expected to write a minimum 2200-word (not including footnotes or bibliography) double-spaced academic research paper on a nonprofit, legal topic of their choice from the class topics. Several works and references, including resources outside class readings, should be cited in footnotes and bibliography, using proper citation style. Grading for undergraduates will be based upon a comparison of the undergraduate work in the class. Because there is no final exam in this class, the paper is due by the scheduled time for the final exam, if there were one.

PPPM 588 students will be expected to write a professional-quality, minimum 3200-word (not including footnotes or bibliography) double-spaced academic research paper on a nonprofit, legal topic of their choice from the class topics. Several works and references, including resources outside class readings, should be cited as footnotes and bibliography, using proper citation style. Grading for graduates will be based upon a comparison of the graduate work in the class. Because there is no final exam in this class, the paper is due by the scheduled time for the final exam, if there were one.

Grading Rubric
A – Outstanding – Not only fulfilling the requirements, but going far beyond the expectations of the project. The student has demonstrated a superior grasp of the subject matter coupled with a high degree of creative or logical expression, and strong ability to present these ideas in an organized and analytical manner.

B – Very Good – The student has demonstrated a solid grasp of the material with an ability to examine the material in an organized, critical, and constructive manner. The projects and in-class performance reveal a solid understanding of the issues and related theories or literature.

C – Acceptable – The student has completed all work, and shown a moderate ability to grasp concepts and theories for the class, producing work that, while adequate, is not in any way exceptional. Through projects and class discussions, the student displays a basic familiarity with the relevant literature and techniques.

D – Unacceptable – The student’s work does not meet the requirements, or demonstrates a minimal understanding of the fundamental nature of the material or the assignment with a performance that does not adequately examine the course material critically or constructively.

F – Failure – The student has demonstrated a lack of understanding or familiarity with course concepts and materials. Their performance has been inadequate. Failure is often the result of limited effort and poor attendance, that may indicate that the student is not in the proper field of study.

Course Workload
Generally, the expected workload for a graduate level class is approximately 3-4 hours/week per credit hour. Thus, this four-credit course will require approximately 12-16 hours of effort per week. Our class meets for nearly three hours each week, so students should expect to spend an additional 9 to 13 hours per week studying for this course. Per UO Credit Hour and Workload Policies, undergraduates are expected to work 30 hours per credit hour, counting both in class and out of class; while graduate students are expected to work 40 hours per credit hour, counting both in class and out of class.

Classroom Environment
To create a classroom in which students are comfortable expressing their opinions and perspectives, students should approach the readings and others’ contributions with both an open mind and a willingness to question one’s own assumptions and biases.

Professional Practice and Conduct
Students are expected to behave in a professional manner at all times in the classroom and on class assignments outside the classroom. Furthermore:

- Students should treat each other and the instructor with the professional courtesy and respect expected in a workplace.
- All communications relating to this course and all work turned in for this course should reflect professional standards in tone, presentation, formatting, and spelling.
- The classroom is a place of focused learning. This requires that students arrive on time, stay until the end of the class period, and do not disrupt the class by leaving the room temporarily. I also expect students to refrain from non-learning activities during class and to mute all cell phones before entering the classroom. Students who fail to adhere to these guidelines will be asked to leave for the remainder of the class session.
- I expect all course assignments to be completed using a word processor.

Writing Lab
This is a writing intensive course. If you struggle with writing, I strongly encourage you to use the services of the Writing Lab: The Writing Lab begins week two of the term and closes at 5:00PM the Wednesday of finals week. Free tutors are available. Upper-division and graduate student tutors are available on a drop-in basis or by appointment.

Email
I will try to respond to all email within 48 hours of receiving them. Given the quantity of email we all receive, I ask that you make sure you have reviewed the course website and the syllabus prior to sending a note about course logistics!

Written, Graphic & Visual Materials
Your ability to communicate orally and using written, graphic, and visual techniques are critical and valuable skills in nonprofit management. Evaluation of assignments will consider the following communication criteria:

- Document structure (clear organization and flow)
- Findings (conclusions supported by evidence)
- Tone and voice (professional, avoiding bias and using active voice)
- Presentation (appropriate use of graphics, tables, photos, etc.)
- Formatting
- Grammar and punctuation
- Proper reference citations

Documented Disabilities

Students with a documented disability and anticipate needing accommodations in this course should make arrangements to see the instructor as soon as possible, and should request that the Counselor for Students with Disabilities send a letter to the instructor verifying the disability.

Late Assignment Policy

We strongly discourage submitting assignments late. Late assignments will be assessed a 10% per day penalty (including weekends) unless there is a qualified, documented excuse (according to UO rules).

Missed Class Policy

If you miss a class, please arrange to get class notes from a classmate. Instructor lecture notes are not available. Given that this is a small class, please email me ahead of class if you must miss class. Class attendance and participation are part of the grade.

Incomplete Policy

Students are expected to turn in all materials at the designated time and date. In accordance with university regulations, an incomplete will only be given when “the quality of work is satisfactory but a minor yet essential requirement of the course has not been completed for reasons acceptable to the instructor.”

Academic Misconduct

You are expected at all times to do your own work. Copying content from other students and submitting it as your own work is grounds for failing the class. The University Student Conduct Code (available at conduct.uoregon.edu) defines academic misconduct. Students are prohibited from committing or attempting to commit any act that constitutes academic misconduct. By way of example, students should not give or receive (or attempt to give or receive) unauthorized help on assignments or examinations without express permission from the instructor.

Plagiarism

Students should properly acknowledge and document all sources of information (e.g. quotations, paraphrases, ideas) and use only the sources and resources authorized by the instructor. If there is any question about whether an act constitutes academic misconduct, it is the students' obligation to clarify the question with the instructor before committing or attempting to commit the act. Additional information about a common form of academic misconduct, plagiarism, is available at: www.libweb.uoregon.edu/guides/plagiarism/students.

Equity and Inclusion

Diversity Statement (Written by the Department of Education, used with permission)

In this course, class discussions, projects/activities and assignments will challenge students to think critically about and be sensitive to the impact of cultural, religious, gender, race, socioeconomic, physical and cognitive ability, and sexual differences. Students will be encouraged to develop or expand their respect and understanding of such differences.

Classroom Behavior (Written by Maure Smith-Benanti, used with permission)

Maintaining a safe classroom environment where everyone feels comfortable expressing their ideas, beliefs, and values will not only be my responsibility, but the responsibility of each class member as well. Behavior that disregards or diminishes another student will not be permitted for any reason. This means that no racist, ableist, transphobic, xenophobic, chauvinistic or otherwise derogatory comments will be allowed, but it also means that students must pay attention and listen respectfully to each other’s comments.

Sexual Violence, Harassment and Survivor Support
The UO is committed to providing an environment free of all forms of discrimination and sexual harassment, including sexual assault, domestic and dating violence and gender-based stalking. If you (or someone you know) has experienced or experiences gender-based violence (intimate partner violence, attempted to completed sexual assault, harassment, coercion, stalking, etc.), know that you are not alone. UO has staff members trained to support survivors in navigating campus life, accessing health and counseling services, providing academic and housing accommodations, helping with legal protective orders, and more. If you wish to speak to someone confidentially, you can call 541-346-SAFE, UO’s 24-hour hotline, to be connected to a confidential counselor to discuss your options. You can also visit the SAFE website at safe.uoregon.edu.
