University of Oregon Liability Statement
The student is not an employee of the University. The Oregon Tort Claims Act (ORS 30.260-300) permits the University to accept responsibility only for the acts of its officers, employees and agents. Since a student participating in an internship does not qualify as any of those persons, the University is prohibited from accepting any liability for the acts, omissions, and conduct of students in an internship and is prohibited from providing coverage with State Accident Insurance or other workers’ compensation, liability insurance, or unemployment insurance. The “Community Partner” agrees it is the Community Partner's responsibility to determine what provisions or actions are necessary to fulfill any liability and workers’ compensation obligations created by its participation in an internship program.

Compensation
Any compensation arrangements made between the Community Partner and the student are outside of this agreement. Except for any special arrangements specifically documented in writing prior to the beginning of the internship and made part of this agreement, the student is responsible for their own transportation, parking and any expenses associated with the internship.

Responsibilities
The student, site supervisor, and Internship Director agree to their respective responsibilities outlined on page 2 of this agreement.

Exhibit A: Folklore and Public Culture Program Internship Description
The student, site supervisor, and Internship Director acknowledge and support the learning goals, tasks, and responsibilities to be outlined on page 4 of this agreement.
Note to student: If your internship period covers more than one term (as outlined on page 1), you are only required to update and resubmit Exhibit A: Folklore and Public Culture Program Internship Description (page 4) after the initial term of your internship.
