GRADUATE STUDENT
FOLKLORE AND PUBLIC CULTURE RESEARCH AWARDS

AWARD
Two $500 awards will be disbursed at the end of spring term to support graduate student research during the summer.

SUBMISSION REQUIREMENTS
A 1-2 page proposal that includes:
- A description of the project that specifies what will be accomplished in summer 2020.
- How the project contributes to your academic or professional goals.
- How the funds will be used.
- The significance of the project.
- A timeline.
- The name and email address of a faculty member who can speak to the merits of the project.

DEADLINE
Friday, April 17, 2020
By 5:00pm
All materials must be submitted via email attachment to Beth Magee, emagee@uoregon.edu

ELIGIBILITY
To be eligible to apply for a Graduate Student Folklore and Public Culture Research Award, you must be currently enrolled in the Folklore and Public Culture master’s program or in another program with an emphasis in Folklore (e.g. Folklore structured emphasis in English PhD program).

PURPOSE
Funding can be used to support fieldwork expenses, purchase research-related materials, travel to conferences or other professional activities, or other appropriate research-related activities.

CONTACT
If you have questions, please contact Folklore and Public Culture Director of Graduate Studies:
Prof. Daniel Wojcik
dwojcik@uoregon.edu or 541-346-3946

Note: Students receiving financial aid should contact the Financial Aid Office prior to accepting this and other support because receiving additional financial resources may reduce their financial aid award.