Applications now being accepted from continuing Folklore and Public Culture Program Graduate Students for the 2020-2021 Academic Year

Please review the Folklore and Public Culture Graduate Duties and Responsibilities Statement at https://gradschool.uoregon.edu/funding/ge/gdrs

Eligibility Requirement

- Must be admitted into the Folklore and Public Culture Master’s Program
- Students newly entering the program will automatically be considered for GE positions and will be evaluated on their academic record.
- Students already in the program must demonstrate satisfactory academic standing and progress toward the degree:
  - Minimum of 3.5 GPA
  - Satisfactory progress toward completing coursework for degree requirements (usually at least 9 credits per term)
  - Making appropriate progress toward thesis or terminal project (assessed by Folklore and Public Culture faculty, including chair of student’s advising committee, based on when student entered program and anticipated date of graduation)

Positions: (Provide tuition waiver and stipends)

- Two .49 FTE GE positions for spring term for FLR 250, Introduction to Folklore. GEs are responsible for leading two discussion sections each.
- .40 FTE GE positions as student archivist in the Mills Folklore Archives.
- .40 FTE Special Projects GE for the Oregon Folklife Network (fall, winter, and spring terms).

APPLICATION DEADLINE APRIL 17, 2020

To apply:

Please submit a letter detailing your interest and qualifications for each position to which you are applying, and a CV, by April 17 (if a current student). All materials must be submitted via email attachment to Beth Magee, emagee@uoregon.edu.

Contact Folklore and Public Culture Program Director of Graduate Studies, Prof. Daniel Wojcik at dwojcik@uoregon.edu (541) 346-3946 for additional information.