Administrative Actions:

I. Announcements – None

II. Discussion

Guests: Alison Gash and Lea Rumbarger

Alison and Lea reviewed the UO Multicultural Requirement draft with the committee. A couple of minor changes were suggested.

Section 2.2

Such courses will address:

1. Intersecting aspects of identity such as race, gender, sexuality, socioeconomic status, indigeneity, national origin, religion, or ability.
2. The uses of power in the US to classify, rank, and marginalize on the basis of these aspects of identity, as well as responses from marginalized groups to such uses of power.
3. Historical and and/or contemporary structures, forms of knowledge, cultural practices, or ideologies that perpetuate or change the distribution of power in US society.

Section 2.3

2.3 BE IT FURTHER MOVED that courses in the Global Perspectives category will foster student encounter with and critical reflection upon cultures, identities, and ways of being in predominantly non-US contexts. Such courses will include substantial scholarship, cultural production, perspectives, and voices from members of communities under study, as sources permit.

Suggested: beliefs beyond the US context

Such courses will engage with one of more of the following:

1. Texts, literature, art, testimonies, practices, and other cultural products that reflect systems of meaning or belief substantially different from those limited to the United States;
2. Power relations involving different nations, peoples and identity groups, or world regions;
3. Consideration of hierarchy, marginality or discrimination based on race, ethnicity, gender, religion, sexual orientation, nationality, or ability (or some combination).

Section 2.7 – UOCC will propose a process and timeline to the Senate for review and approval by June 6, 2018

No courses approved or reviewed since faculty quorum was not achieved.
