Distribution Requirements:

The distribution requirements can be satisfied by receiving a mid-B or better in the areas listed below. A single course may count toward each of three categories, but no more than once in a single category. For example, a course may count in a sub-disciplinary field such as metaphysics, and, at the same time, apply to both the history requirement and the traditions requirement.

NOTE: If credits from another institution will be used to satisfy some Distribution Requirements, they must be listed below. Credits used for requirements must be approved by the Director of Graduate Studies.
