

APPLICATION TO PROCEED TO THE DOCTORATE IN ROMANCE LANGUAGES

You must file this form to request admission to the Ph.D. program in Romance languages. Admission to this program is not automatic. The Graduate Committee meets, early in winter term, to consider each student on the basis of overall course work, general language proficiency, faculty recommendations and a writing sample. Deadline for priority consideration is January 6.

Name: _____ Date: _____

Primary Language: _____

Second Romance Language _____ Level: _____
(Please indicate most advanced course completed)

Title of M.A. Essay: _____

Advisor: _____

Names of members of M.A. Exam committee:

_____, chair

Please attach the following materials to this form:

- a copy of current UO transcripts
- a statement of purpose (500-750 words) describing your specific research interests and eventual career goals
- a sample of scholarly writing (15-25 pages)

To complete your file, you will also need three letters of recommendation from professors with whom you have worked and which make direct reference to your aptitude for graduate courses in literary and cultural studies, as well as your language competence. One letter may refer to your potential teaching ability. The recommendation form can be downloaded from the RL website.