ARCH 4/507 Fall 2021

HOUSING CAN BE ___________

ARCH 4/507 | Tuesday 12:30-3:20pm | Location TBD

Instructors:  Renée Strand, AIA  rstrand@holstarc.com
              Dave Otte, AIA  dotte@holstarc.com

In this course students will understand the historic forces that have shaped our built environment through the lens of housing, and will research housing strategies and solutions from the past to the future. The course will include assigned readings, guest speakers, site visits, and both individual and group assignments.

Students work closely with the community and housing experts to better understand a specific place in Portland in preparation for subsequent design studios in the 2022 winter and spring terms.

Degree requirement fulfillment:
Housing; and Urban Architecture and Urban Design subject area elective

This course has no pre-requisites.
