GLOBAL HEALTH MINOR APPLICATION

This minor is designed for students interested in gaining focused curricular concentration and experience in global public health. Courses expose students to critical social and historical perspectives in global health, as well as to human physiological and developmental processes in comparative, cross-cultural, and international perspectives. A required intensive supervised field internship or research project will provide students with tangible experience in global health research and practice.

APPLICATION DEADLINE
The Winter 2020 application is due by Monday, January 27, 2020, at 11:59 p.m.

Incomplete applications will not be considered. Please ensure that all of the minor application materials are submitted before the deadline.

APPLICATION REQUIREMENTS

- Unofficial UO Transcript (download from Duckweb)
- Personal statement (2500 characters max)
- Copy of current resume or curriculum vitae*
- Appointment with a Global Health Advisor
- Global Health Minor Planner on file with the GH Advisors (created during the appointment with a GH Advisor)

NOTE: Global Health Minor applications are evaluated holistically. It is recommended to have a 3.0+ GPA at the time of application, but the G.P.A. is only one factor of several taken into consideration when evaluating potential minors.
*Remember you are not a GH student quite yet, and your CV should reflect your current experience status as a student at the UO.

Make a GH advising appointment by using the UO Advising platform EAB Navigate, available in the Apple AppStore, GooglePlay, and through your web browser.

APPLICATION REVIEW

The GH Minor Admissions Committee will review your completed application, and you will be notified of the committee's decision via email to your UO email account by the end of Week 6. At the time of notification of your acceptance into the program, you will be notified of a mandatory orientation meeting for all new minors.

Your acceptance into the program doesn’t necessarily mean that all proposals in your application packet were accepted or approved for your program of study. Please check with the GH Undergraduate Advisor on the status of your proposals.

If you have any questions or concerns about the application process, please contact the GH & OCIAS Undergraduate Administrative team at ocias@uoregon.edu.
