My Character Analysis

- Characterization is the process by which the writer reveals the personality of a character. Characterization is revealed through direct characterization and indirect characterization.

- Character Analysis is when you write about a specific character from the story. You bring together the different points of view (synthesize) about the character and then create a short descriptive response that gives your overall interpretation of the character.

- What should my paragraph have? 2 PARAGRAPHS o Description of the character based on what you have learned from the author? Personality traits, Role in the story, Physical traits

- Your own opinion of the character based on what you’ve learned about the character thus far. How do you feel/think about this character? Why?
- What you think is the significance (importance) of this character and what are your predictions?
