Arthur is born to King Uther and Queen Igerna. His mother dies soon after he is born. Arthur removes the sword from the stone, and he is declared King of England.

Possible reasons for deserves: 1) Tell the story of a king who succeeds because of his good character traits. 2) It is exciting because it has magic, suspense, and heroism.

Possible reasons for does not deserve: 1) It takes place a long time ago 2) Arthur might not be real, 3) The values are old fashioned