

Thursday, 12 July
Morning Plenary Session

Grand Ballrooms A-D

- 8:30 AM Call to Order and Welcome to St. Louis
Richard Mayden, St. Louis University
- 8:30 AM Dr. Jack Musick, American Elasmobranch Society
“The Changing Face of Shark Research: 400 Million Years of Evolution and Four Decades of Shark Research”
- 9:15 AM Dr. Darrel Frost, Immediate Past President, American Society of Ichthyologists and Herpetologists
"Progress and controversy: perspectives on the last 40 years"
- 10:00 AM Dr. Marvalee H. Wake, University of California, Berkely, The Herpetologists League Distinguished Herpetologist
"Eye of Newt and Toe of Frog: Herpetology in the 21st Century Science"
- 10:45 AM Carl von Linn Award for Outstanding Contributions in Herpetology - Richard Mayden
- 11:05 AM Carl von Linne Award for Outstanding Contributions in Ichthyology - Richard Mayden
- 11:30 AM Closing

Group photos immediately follow the closing. Photos will be taken by the fountain across Market Street from the Hyatt Regency. Meeting staff will be available to direct you to the correct location. Photos will be taken in the following order:

- 1- Joint Meeting Photo
- 2- AES Group Photo
- 3- SSAR Anniversary Photo