

1 1/2"
Top Margin

ALL CAPS AND BOLD

TITLE OF PRESENTATION FOR ACADEMIC CHAIRPERSONS CONFERENCE

***If there is more than one author, use the same format; just put one after the other, primary author first. If authors are from the same institution, you may reference the institution after the last author.

John Doe, Department Head
Department of Physics, Kansas State University

One blank
Space

Jane Doe, Professor
Department of Biology, Fort Hays State University

Abstract

Center and Bold. DO NOT UNDERLINE

One blank Space

Do not justify the abstract to smaller margins than the paper itself. Make it just as wide as the rest as this example is showing. Do not justify the abstract to smaller margins than the paper itself. Make it just as wide as the rest as this example is showing. Do not justify the abstract to smaller margins than the paper itself. Make it just as wide as the rest as this example is showing. Do not justify the abstract to smaller margins than the paper itself. Make it just as wide as the rest as this example is showing.

1-inch side margins

Introduction

Center and Bold. DO NOT UNDERLINE

One blank Space

Start your paper without indenting the first line, or creating a new page after the abstract. Continue the written presentation down the title page, just as this is showing. Make as many paragraphs as needed. Start your paper without indenting the first line, or creating a new page after the abstract. Continue the written presentation down the title page, just as this is showing. Make as many paragraphs as needed. Start your paper without indenting the first line, or creating a new page after the abstract. Continue the written presentation down the title page, just as this is showing. Make as many paragraphs as needed. Start your paper without indenting the first line, or creating a new page after the abstract. Continue the written presentation down the title page, just as this is showing. Make as many paragraphs as needed. Start your paper without indenting the first line, or creating a new page after the abstract. Continue the written presentation down the title page, just as this is showing. Make as many paragraphs as needed. Start your paper without indenting the first line, or creating a new page after the abstract. Continue the written presentation down the title page, just as this is showing. Make as many paragraphs as needed.

DO NOT indent

Center and Bold.

DO NOT UNDERLINE

First Heading of My Presentation

One blank Space

You do not necessarily need an introduction, this sample just put one in. You can just start your paper with your first heading. Feel free to exclude the above paragraph and start with your own heading. You do not necessarily need an introduction, this sample just put one in. You can just start your paper with your first heading. Feel free to exclude the above paragraph and start with your own heading. You do not necessarily need an introduction, this sample just put one in. You can just start your paper with your first heading. Feel free to exclude the above paragraph and start with your own heading. You do not necessarily need an introduction, this sample just put one in. You can just start your paper with your first heading. Feel free to exclude the above paragraph and start with your own heading.

No page numbers

1-inch margin