

I can explain what an organism is.

I can explain reproduction.

I can explain that all organisms are born, reproduce and die.

I can develop a model to explain changes that organisms have life cycles.

I can explain how organisms get what they need to survive.

I can explain how organisms traits help them survive.

I can explain why the same organisms have variation in their traits based on habitats.

I can explain how different organisms interact within the same habitat.