Book Week is coming.
Get ready to do some...

Extreme Reading
ANYWHERE! ANYTIME!

As part of our Book Week celebrations March 11-15, 2013, we are asking the NIS community to take pictures of themselves reading in unexpected, bizarre situations and places! Be creative!

Send your .jpg to the NIS Librarians by Friday March 5 to be included in the fun!

A note about safety:
Please remember, books are replaceable, but your children are not.
