

May, 2018

Donna Konkolics informed me she will be retiring as of July 1, 2019. After spending more than thirty years in leadership positions at Maplebrook School, she has been Head of School since 2000 and has left her mark on the school by leading it through its dual accreditation by the Middle States Association of Colleges and Schools and the New York Association of Independent Schools.

At the May 1, 2018 meeting of the Board of Trustees, Jennifer Scully was appointed as the new Head of School effective July 1, 2019. Jennifer has been at Maplebrook since 1994 and has held a variety of positions including teacher, Dean of Admissions and Assistant Head of School. She is very committed to the boarding school way of life and has written many published pieces regarding students with learning challenges. She has been a speaker in much demand at the Learning Disabilities of America international conference as well as several state conferences and was a part of the Visionary Team who developed the latest strategic plan.

We are pleased that we have an individual well versed to lead Maplebrook as Donna moves into her well-earned retirement.

Sincerely,

Mark J. Metzger
Chair, Board of Trustees
