

Working Together to Obtain Foundation Funding

A NURAP AT NOON EVENT

Michelle Melin-Rogovin

Senior Associate Director of Foundation Relations, FSM

Susan Fisher Miller

Senior Associate Director, Office
of Foundation Relations

Members of the Office of Foundation Relations and the Feinberg School of Medicine Development team will characterize private foundation philanthropy and explain their own roles in advancing foundation partnerships at Northwestern. In detailing their offices' resources available to the University, they will give special attention to how research administrators and foundation relations staff can work together to greatest advantage. The presentation will identify special challenges in foundation fundraising that require cross-campus collaboration, and will allow time for discussion with the NURAP audience.
