

COI Update: New eDisclosure System Goes Live February 2016

A NURAP AT NOON EVENT

Julia Campbell
Director, Conflict of Interest

If you are involved in pre- or post-award research administration or IRB protocol submissions, this session will be beneficial for you. eDisclosure will replace the existing University systems for all University COI processes in February 2016. eDisclosure includes new features and tools that provide better transparency for research administrators as to where projects are in the COI process. During this presentation you will learn how to use eDisclosure to facilitate timely and compliant proposal submission, award set-ups, and IRB protocol approvals.
