Introduction

Aisha Ghori Ozaki
• Introduction
• DEI @ Northwestern and OR
• Discussion / Q+A
Have you ever wondered?
Diversity defined

The term diversity is used to describe individual differences (e.g., life experiences, learning and working styles, personality types) and group/social differences (e.g., race, socio-economic status, class, gender identity, sexual orientation, country of origin, ability, intellectual traditions and perspectives, as well as cultural, political, religious, and other affiliations) that can be engaged to achieve excellence in teaching, learning, research, scholarship, and administrative and support services.

Surface level
- Age/generation, disability, race and ethnicity, gender identity, marital status, parental status, religion, sexual orientation, veteran status, documentation status

Deep Level
- Attitudes and opinions, beliefs and values, information, knowledge and skills, personality traits, temperament, preferences, social networks, social status and life experience
Support

• Office of Equity
• Office of Institutional Diversity & Inclusion
• Office for Research, Diversity, Equity & Inclusion
  – Coaching and consulting
  – Amplification of institutional resources
  – Learning experiences and events
Initiatives

- Current initiatives include supporting faculty diversity, undergraduate students, staff affinity groups, task forces, gender inclusion, historical commemorations, veterans support and more.

- In the Office for Research, the commitment to Diversity, Equity and Inclusion (DEI) is foundational, amplifies the institutional focus and is further enhanced through the creation of an inaugural role to provide direct support for the department with responsibilities for leading and coordinating efforts to create a diverse, inclusive and equitable workplace environment.
Questions/Discussion
HR Updates

Beth Abbott
HR Updates - Compensation

• General delays and backlog

• Job Descriptions:
  – [Compensation] recommends not editing (with bullets or highlighting) job family description templates. This will decrease the turnaround time on position creations, reclassifications, and backfills from 5 business days to 3 business days. School/Central Unit marketing statements and job detail may be included in the job posting.
Closing & Questions
THANK YOU!!
