Recommended Primary Sources for the Writing Assignment

All primary sources (also called primary documents) which listed below are contained within the following books.

(This book has been placed on reserve at the front desk (Circulation desk) in the Dunwoody Library).

(This book has been placed on reserve at the front desk (Circulation desk) in the Dunwoody Library).

Each of these books can be checked out for two hours, but must remain in the library. If you take one of them from the library, you will have many points deducted from final grade on the writing assignment.

Listed below are the recommended primary document options for this paper. These are suggestions for the various primary documents that can be paired together for this paper. They correspond with the topics covered in the 1112 course. They are each listed in the correct order for analysis (the first primary document you will analyze is listed first, and then the second primary document is listed directly below the first). Choose one pair of documents for the entire paper. Only the titles of the primary documents are listed below, not the complete citations. It is expected that the student will be responsible for properly citing the primary documents chosen for the paper. To find examples of how to properly cite these documents, be sure to consult the Writing Assignment Guidelines Handout (click on the link on my webpage).
