

Mark Goldberg '85
Chief Financial Officer
Rolex Watch USA

Mark Goldberg is the Chief Financial Officer of Rolex Watch USA, the world's leading luxury watch brand. Mark has been with Rolex since 2005 and has overall responsibility for several operational and strategic functions at Rolex in addition to Finance, and sits on the company's Board of Directors.

Mark started his career in public accounting with PKF O'Connor Davies in New York and later moved on to PriceWaterhouseCoopers. After leaving the world of public accounting, Mark held several finance positions with manufacturing companies as well as in pharmaceuticals.

Mark currently serves as the Chairman of the Board of Directors of St. Christopher's Inn in Garrison, NY, a temporary homeless shelter dedicated to the rehabilitation of men in crisis. Mark is also an active member of the Board of Directors of the Jewelers Vigilance Committee, the American Watch Association, and Jewelers for Children. In his free time, Mark enjoys golf, travel, and coaching youth sports.

Mark earned a Bachelor of Science in Accounting from Providence College in 1985. He lives with his wife Kim, also a 1985 Providence College graduate, and their two daughters in New Jersey.