

William A. Mekrut '74

Former Vice President — Finance
FM Global

William A. Mekrut serves as a member of Providence College President's Council and as an Advisory Board member of the Providence College School of Business. Mekrut was elected to the AAA National Board of Directors in 2015, became vice chair in 2017 and was elected chair in May 2019. Since 2008, Mekrut has served on the Board of AAA Northeast. Additionally, he serves on the holding companies affiliated with AAA Northeast – AAA Motor Club Holdings and Red Rooster Investment Company. He is a past Chair of Delta Dental RI.

Mekrut retired in 2018 as vice president and treasurer of FM Global where he worked since 1990. Prior to Mekrut's insurance career, he was a Senior Tax Manager with Ernst and Young in Providence, Rhode Island.

Mekrut, a certified public accountant, earned his bachelor's degree in accounting and finance from Providence College and a master's degree from Bryant University. He and his wife Joan, '74 and '98 M' Ed, live in Lincoln, Rhode Island and have two grown children and four grandchildren.