

Rudy Cline-Thomas '00
Founder & Managing Partner
Mastry, Inc.

Rudy is the founder and managing partner of Mastry, Inc., a company that specializes in identifying technology, retail, media and investment opportunities for partners which include Fortune 500 companies, early stage start-ups and professional athletes. Mastry has also invested in over 40 companies including LimeBike, Allbirds, Uber, GOAT, Stance, Thrive Global, TSM (Solomid), Zoom and Casper to name a few.

Rudy has partnered with Bloomberg to create The Annual Players Technology Summit, which brings together top leaders in the technology, venture capital and sports communities to discuss tech investing, trends, partnerships and future sports/tech initiatives.

Rudy Cline-Thomas is on the Advisory Boards of Pacific Pro Football, Inc., Intent Venture and Global Communities. Rudy is also a Board Member of the Business Advisory Council for Providence College.

Rudy works and resides in New York City.