

Michael Tucker '93
Partner/Portfolio Manager
PAR Capital Management Inc.

Michael is a partner/portfolio manager at PAR Capital Management Inc., a $5 billion hedge fund in Boston, MA. He manages a concentrated long/short portfolio of equity and debt securities within the gaming, lodging, and energy sectors with a focus on positive absolute returns. Prior to PAR, Michael spent four years as a portfolio manager at Andover Capital Partners, a hedge fund that invested in the debt and equity securities of levered companies. He began his career as a high yield bond trader at Standish, Ayer, & Wood before becoming a credit analyst and finally a high yield portfolio manager.

Michael has a B.S. in Finance from Providence College and an MBA in Finance from Boston College. He also holds a Chartered Financial Analyst (CFA) designation.

Michael lives in Hingham, MA with his wife and three children. When he is not working or traveling with his family, Michael spends his time coaching youth baseball and basketball.