

Networking and Navigating Your Political Science Major

Date: Thursday, November 2, 2017

Time: 5:30 –7:00 pm

Where: Ryan Center 106

Last semester we convened a student forum to discuss how we can improve your experience as Political Science majors and minors. In that meeting students expressed a desire to have more opportunities to meet and talk with each other, so that students who have a common interest in political science can build a more supportive community.

This event, which includes pizza and ice cream, is a chance for you to meet each other and talk about a range of items, including course selections, ideas for events and guest speakers on political issues, ideas for career planning, or internship opportunities. The agenda is open and faculty will be there only to facilitate the conversations. In other words, it is a chance to network with each other and build a stronger, more vibrant community of political science students.

If you are a person with a disability and require an assistive device, service, or other accommodation to participate in this event, please contact the Central Reservations Coordinator (401-865-2070; M-F 8:30a.m.—4:30p.m.) well in advance of the event.
