Patient History:
Father of two boys, age 12 and 10. Works as a professor of Biology. Plays tennis regularly, golfs, eats well, age 44, generally healthy, complaints of tennis elbow May ’07, routine checkups unremarkable.

Presentation: Fatigue, loss of appetite, nausea. 2 days post initial symptoms, developed a rash of blisters. These photos are taken 10 days post rash formation.

Diagnosis?
Treatment?
Prognosis?