

LITERACY WORKSHOPS

BUILDING EMERGENT LITERACY TOGETHER, WITH MS. LISA

How do I help my child become a reader?

Research has shown that the development of early literacy skills is important for later academic success as well as for developing a love of reading. Quality, shared storybook reading has been linked to gains in emergent literacy skills, including vocabulary development and knowledge of print. Early literacy skills promote success in reading, writing, and other academic areas.

Come join us for a series of workshops about developing early literacy skills with our youngest learners.

WHAT?

Join us this year for a series of workshops about emergent literacy in the early years

WHO?

Best suited for PreK and KG1 parents, but all are welcome

WHERE?

The UAS Elementary Library

WHEN? The workshops will take place on the last Tuesday of every month from 7:30 to 8:30 AM

SEPTEMBER 25	Is My Child Ready? - Ready to Read: A discussion of emergent literacy
OCTOBER 30	Is It Reading? - Beyond Books: Discovering our print rich environment
NOVEMBER 27	What are Concepts of Print? - Engaging with Texts: How to model and prompt
DECEMBER	No workshops in December
JANUARY 29	Why Should I Read With My Child? - Building Readiness: The benefits of shared story book reading
FEBRUARY 26	How Should I Read With My Child? - Reading Engagement: Modeling an interactive read aloud
MARCH 26	How Should I Read With My Child? Part 2 - Sharing Books: The importance of repeated readings
APRIL 30	How Should I Read With My Child? Part 3 - Analytic Talk: Modeling making inferences, predictions, and connections
MAY 28	What Should I Do After Reading? - The Retell: The importance of retelling stories and reading comprehension
JUNE 11	Join us for an end of year literacy celebration!

If you have any questions regarding the workshop series, please contact Ms. Lisa at ldornan@uasdubai.ae or Ms. Fox at rfox@uasdubai.ae

