

UNIVERSITY OF CALIFORNIA
SANTA CRUZ

E . A . R . T . H . L . A . B

presents . . .

Playing with Fire: A Hot Symposium

Friday, October 7th
6 pm to 8 pm

*Honoring & Celebrating
Environmental Art Ancestors:
A tribute to Newton &
Helen Harrison*

Saturday, October 8th
10 am to 6 pm

Gathering

*Keynote, three panels
about fire related topics, ambient performances.*

7:30 pm to 9:30 pm

Evening of Performance & Film

Sunday, October 9th
10 am to 3 pm

*Fire Fighter Stories
Open Mic*

Panels, performances, environmental art, ritual, formerly incarcerated firefighters, storytelling, former hotshots, burn pits, Pyrocene rodeo queens, poetry, music, birth & death, Golem, queer activist strategies, eco-burlesque, science, campfires, music and s'mores.

Hosted by the co-directors of the E.A.R.T.H. Lab, artist-filmmakers Professor Beth Stephens & Annie Sprinkle

The entire symposium will be filmed for a new documentary feature film, Playing with Fire, directed by Beth Stephens & Annie Sprinkle. Audience seating will be arranged according to those who wish to be filmed and those who do not.

Digital Arts Research Center
DARC Building, Room 108, UCSC
UCSC charges parking fees

For more details:
earthlab.ucsc.edu

Free and open to the public. Dress: Fire themed clothing and costumes encouraged.

Design: Julie Rogge. Fire Photo 6260520 © Andrey Armyagov | Dreamstime.com

Thanks to all our sponsors so far, and the list is growing.

UC SANTA CRUZ

Art Department

