

50 Years Since STONEWALL

the June 1969 Stonewall riots, memory, and terrains of LGBTQ+ liberation

The Stonewall riots marked one of the most galvanizing periods in the fight for sexual and gender liberation and the six days of protest against transphobia, homophobia, and police repression offered powerful stories, movements, and acts of queer resistance, sexual and gender liberation, and racial, ethnic, and cultural solidarity. The riots inspired LGBTQ+ people throughout the country to organize in support of gay rights, and within two years after the riots, social movements for gender and sexual liberation were sparked in nearly every major city in the United States.

Pride Postcards to LGBTQ+ Prisoners

a participatory event with Josh Cerretti, Assistant Professor of History
Wednesday, May 22, 1:00 to 3:30 p.m., Miller Hall Collaborative Space

Schooling After Stonewall

a panel with A Longoria, Instructor of Secondary Education, and community
K-12 educators
Wednesday, May 22, 4:00 p.m., Miller Hall 152

Stones to the Wall: How to Remember a Riot

a talk by Chris E. Vargas,
Assistant Professor of Art
Thursday, May 23, 5:00 p.m., Fraser 201

DRAWINGS BY CHRIS E. VARGAS.

All events free and open to the community.
Event descriptions at lgbtq.wvu.edu.
EO/AA. For disability accommodation, please contact the LGBTQ+ Director at (360) 650-7500 or L.K.Langley@wvu.edu.

